

STATE

✓
CALIFORNIA

COUNTY

Alameda

TOWN OR VICINITY

San Leandro

2p

INDEX NUMBER

CAL. I- SAN LE, 1-

MONUMENT

Estudillo House (DESTROYED)

REPRESENTED IN NEGATIVE FILE

H.A.B.S. SURVEY NO.

CAL-1662

History: Built in 1868. Jose
Joaquin Estudillo granted RanchoPUBLISHED
PHOTOGRAPHSSan Leandro, 1 league, in 1839 and 1842 claimed 6,830 acres, patented July 15, 1863.PUBLISHED DRAWINGSDon Jose's father Jose Maria arrived in Calif in 1806 and was an officer in Spanish army.Educated Spanish Castillian. Don Jose Joaquin entered military service at 17 and served at Monterey and San Francisco. Married daughter of Ignacio Martinez. His brother Don Jose Antonio made his home in San Diego and was a popular official.

Description: One-story wood frame over high full basement with veranda completely around four sides of house supported by square wood columns with Doric eap mouldings and entablature and solid paneled parapet, with acroteria at corners. Turned baluster railing between columns of veranda. Wood rustic siding with rusticated quoins. Severely classic.

References: Rensch & Hoover - Historic Spots in California
San Leandro, A History by Regmold R. Stuart.

Author of Card: A. Lewis Koue, AIA, Oakland, California
September 1961